Most free books on Google Play are new titles that the author has self-published via the platform, and some classics are conspicuous by their absence; there's no free edition of Shakespeare's complete works, for example.

Between The Devil And Desire

Between the Devil and Desire is a wonderful love story. It has a darker side, but neither the romance nor the darker side of the story overwhelms it. Everything has its place and none of it is used just to be there. Another thing I loved is that Olivia's late husband wasn't a monster.

Between The Devil And Desire (2008) About book: I listened to this as an audio book. Nicely done. Wonderfully written. I gave it 4 stars instead of 5 because the introspection dragged in some places, slowing the pace too much and sometimes repetitious. This is one of a series (it's Book #2) about a group of adults who are bound together by their childhood experiences.
