I bought 3 different board review books for the ABIM internal medicine recertification exam.. This is the one that I found most helpful, and I would have been fine studying this one alone. The level of depth and detail was about right, and the questions were fairly representative of what would be on the test.

In Part 3, it's time to sit back, relax, and add some finishing touches to your design. This stage is all validating your work through the use of a Design Rule Check (DRC). We will then add some much-needed copper pours. Once that's complete, we can then move onto putting some polish on your board layout with the use of silkscreen text.
