~~That edition was released in March, 2008. In the revision process, many chapters were re-edited, with improved writing and tighter endings. Many of the short essays in the last section of the book were cut from the second edition — not because they were bad, but because they did not fit the flow of the rest of the book.~~

~~Difference In Editions Of Books~~

~~New editions of textbooks often have different page numbers than the previous edition. This can be due to small edits that cause all page numbers after that to change, or to a reformatting of the book. It is also not uncommon to change the order of chapters to better fit the order in which teachers tend to present the material.~~

FAQs: Publication Formats, Reprints, Editions, etc. What's the difference between a reprint and a new edition? A reprint means more copies are being printed with no substantial changes. Perhaps a few typos are being fixed. A new edition means that there has been substantial change: content has been altered in a way that might make a customer complain that this was not the product that was expected.
