First Love (Everyman's Library Classics) - Kindle edition ...

First Love is often thought of as the foremost example of the novella in the Russian language. All Russian literature of the late 1800's, I am told, suffers a bit in the translation. I am also told that Turgenev was contemporaneously view as the equal of Tolstoy and Dostoevsky but has not remained as timeless and his reputation has faded with the years.

For the first time in one hardcover volume—three classic novels by the author of Nineteen Eighty-Four and Animal Farm. The lushly descriptive and tragic Burmese Days, a devastating indictment of British colonial rule, is based on Orwell's own experience while serving in the Indian Imperial Police. His beloved satirical classic, Keep the Aspidistra Flying, features a young idealist whose ...

Everyman Classics - Everyman's Library

History. Everyman's Library was conceived in 1905 by London publisher Joseph Malaby Dent, whose goal was to create a 1,000-volume library of world literature that was affordable for, and that appealed to, every kind of person, from students to the working classes to the cultural elite. Dent followed the design principles and to a certain extent the style established by William Morris in his ...
