Sacraments provides an intense focus on grace. Just as touching the hem of Jesus's robe made clear that grace came from him, not from our own power, so too with the sacraments. The sacramental life means trusting in his power. And the sacraments make vivid that the spiritual life means coming out of ourselves in pursuit of the Good God.

The Sacramental Life - The Catholic Spiritual Life

The Sacraments: The Life of The Christian. The Son of God made Himself present to the world in the human nature of Jesus. Jesus is the sign of His Father to us; the Church is the sign of the presence of Jesus to us. Jesus used signs--sacraments--of His presence in ministry during His life: water, bread and wine, touching, spittle, mud, etc.

The Sacraments: The Life of The Christian

The sacraments, then, conform us to the glorified and Risen One that we may, in being configured to him and in living a moral life in him, rise with him to new life; that we may, as was he, be resurrected into eternal life and glory; that we, as he now is, enter the heavenly realm and attain the goal of human nature.
