Thirty-five years ago, I spent 9 months of those 10 years as Fritz's crewman, and not for a moment during our time as shipmates on land and sea was it ever apparent to me that he had such eloquence and soul inside him. In Ten Years Behind the Mast, Fritz takes his reader inside his mind, inside his heart, and once or twice inside his trousers.

Ten Years Behind the Mast was published seven years ago. Fritz Damler completed his circumnavigation fifteen years before that. Maybe taking fifteen years to finish a book about a ten year journey is a little higher than average but it makes me feel less guilty about coming to it seven years later.
