The plot may be a bit predictable, but it's what Eden does with the ordinary to turn it into the extraordinary that counts. There is a wonderful World War I period flavor in The American Heiress. Eden did her homework well, and of course there is a magnificent old house (which is a must for Gothic novels) with dozens of rooms I wanted to explore.

The American Heiress by Dorothy Eden (ebook)

The American Heiress by Dorothy Eden I have had this book in my Library for quite a while. Now I am a fan of this Author as Dorothy Eden has a great style with her writing and telling a story.

Dorothy Eden

I have read other books by Dorothy Eden and she is a go-to author for me. I really liked this book, The American Heiress. It has an intriguing plot line of half sisters destined for different fates when an accident changes everything for them and their family. I relish period pieces and this one did not disappoint.
