No Deadly Medicine and The Final Diagnosis. Arthur Hailey wrote a two part television play for Studio One called "No Deadly Medicine". It was broadcast in 1957 starring Lee J. Cobb, William Shatner and James Broderick. Doubleday commissioned Hailey to adapt the script into a novel, The Final Diagnosis, published in 1959.

A medical novel most likely to succeed with a wide popular public has been tapped by the Literary Guild to begin with and should go on from there. Arthur Hailey who has done some scripts for the home screen (part of this has been tele-viewed) tells a story of real speed (in spite of fuller explanations for those less informed lay medics), sets up some situations of life and death and catches ...
