Exclusive: Andrew Thorp King explains 'tragic moral choice' that must be made. A witch with a crumpled, tired face from years of deceit, lies and unbridled political corruption employed for the sake of personal profit. A clown with an orange face, a gaudy commercial empire and a voracious appetite for attention and ego enlargement. Like many, I remain unimpressed, uninspired and unattached to either.

Why I choose the clown over the witch - WND

A shiver went down her spine at the thought of the monochrome clown. Ginny remembered the look in Keira's eyes and the smirk on her face as she told that story. It was a favorite of Keira's and she made certain to tell it every single year at least three times.
