Large' guide comes shortly after James Mensch's guide on Levinas' Totality and Infinity: An Essay on Exteriority. Both books are extremely helpful in introducing the reader to Levinas in general and his Totality and Infinity (henceforth, TI) in specific, though their approaches are slightly different. Both focus on providing an expository commentary that follows Levinas' text, but Mensch's exposition is longer (just under twice as long) and as a result more detailed.
